Situation:

Banja Luka airbase has been identified as a major launch point for sorties against the Nato forces and has been targeted for destruction. The NATA HAS bunker identified in the recon picture (see below) is the primary objective as it thought to contain two recently purchased top line Russian aircraft. The ammo dump has also been moved up the target list as it is confirmed to contain a cache of the latest A/A Russian missiles.

A 3 ship of F15C's will provide Escort for our flight ingress as the area is surrounded by several active airbases. The planned ECM from an EA-3B has been cancelled due to maintenance issues. Choose your A/G ordnance wisely, as it the target is heavily defended by AAA. Flight path is fixed to ensure proper mutual support. Weather reports show low base for cloud coverage over the target area.

Good luck
