BACKGROUND

Intellegence has been recieved of the whereabouts of a secret radar test to be carried out this morning.

CURRENT SITUATION

Satellites have been picking up an unusual amount of activity at the seldom used airstrip at Cerrik. The radar dome there has been receiving a lot of attention and putting that together with the theft of secret components and the disappearance of one of the top western radar designers we had suspicions that he was going to be there getting the radar dome ready for trials. This has now been confirmed as the defector was spotted by a CIA agent boarding a MI-8 Hip cleared for flight to Cerrik this morning under cover of darkness.

MISSION DETAILS

Mission

8 F-16's have been tasked to launch from Lecce airbase in Italy and to clear a path for the Blackhawks carrying special forces. This airstrip is now heavily protected by SA-11's see intel map. Airstrip is also under the protection of a nearby SA-10. The 185th's task is to destroy all the SAM's and any threat aircraft in the area to allow the helicopters safe passage.

Enemy

A/C: See ATO for active squadrons.

A/D: SA-11's at airstrip SA-10 in vicinity. JSTARS should help with locations.

Friendly

Both a E-8C JSTAR and a E-3 AWAC will be airborne this morning to help coordinate the flight.

Target

Destroy SAM threats at airstrip and in vicinity to allow the Blackhawks to land. The special forces will disembark and secure the area allowing for the capture of this defector and to recover the technology. Take care not to damage the radar dome.

Weather

Mostly clear day with patchy rain in places. Wind 19 knots from 237 degrees

Temperature 21 degrees Celsius patchy fog at 3188 feet visibility 60%
