BACKGROUND

A lightning attack by a Russian-backed DPRK has all but pushed the combined forces of the ROK and USA back to the Busan Perimeter. For just over a week, the combined forces battled bravely to hold off the DPRK until reinforcements arrived in theatre. Now, with their arrival, its time to take the fight back to the DPRK and reclaim the south of the peninsula.

MISSION

Your squadron, recently arrived in theatre, has been tasked to fly a strike mission against Kwangju Airbase. Intel has determined the DPRK are deploying Su-24 strike aircraft to the airbase and if they are allowed to become operational, will play a significant part in making the reclaiming of South Korea a lot more difficult. You must destroy the runway to prevent the Su-24 from landing.

MISSION SUCCESS CRITERIA

- Panther flight : Prevent any losses to strike flight from SAM/AAA threats.
- Lobo flight : Prevent any losses to strike flight from airborne threats.
- Fury flight : Destroy runway at Kwangju Airbase.

MISSION PARTIAL SUCCESS CRITERIA

- Panther flight : Prevent one loss to strike flight from SAM/AAA threats.
- Lobo flight : Prevent one loss to strike flight from airborne threats.
- Fury flight : None.

FRIENDLY SUPPORT

An E-3A AWACS and E-8 JSTARS is on station east of Busan to provide Early Warning and ELINT.
One separate flight is tasked to destroy SA-10 in the region of Chonju (east of Kunsan).
A Patriot SAM battery is in service at Kimhae Storage.

ENEMY INTEL

AAA, SA-4, SA-6, and SA-10 can be expected, but due to their mobile nature exact locations are unknown at this time.
All DPRK squadrons can also be confirmed in the Online Planner.

Any questions, ask! Good Hunting.
