CURRENT SITUATION

There is no background or special events for this mission. It is a straight forward mission in a long war. The new feature is the red forces: Some pilots of the 185th will be flying for the "other side". In the blue forces, there are two packages: The 1941 is a interdiction package close to the FLOT while the 1417 is a deep strike made of 12-ship.

MISSION DETAILS

Weather – Weather seems stable with light cloud coverage near to the target area.

Enemy – USA and its allies deployed several F-16 squadrons and Mirage 2000 in South Korea.

On the ground, our spies confirm several Patriot and Hawk battalions defending South Korean ABs.

Friendly – Check ATO for friendly air units operating in your area.

Mission – Our mission is to sweep the FLOT from enemy aircrafts.

SPECIAL RULE FOR THIS TE: Human AWACS (or any other pilot in the User Interface) is not allowed to offer either BDA on enemy ground units or position of enemy ground units, which are under attack or not. Its only task is to support the mission package on the air-to-air picture.
