BACKGROUND

The lands in the Balkans and Italy have been under enemy control for a number of years but the tide is turning after the allied invasion of Southern Italy.

CURRENT SITUATION

Following the outstanding success of the Dank, Dark and Dangerous mission, open conflict has been engaged.

We know that Sarajevo is barely functioning. We now want Mostar out of the way.

MISSION DETAILS

Mission – Your mission tonight is to assist with the strategic strike on Mostar, a high level resource centre for the enemy.

Target – The targets are the enemy SAM sites that could endanger the B-52's, which will be making the strike. You will be required to double up as escort for the B-52's as well.

Weather – The weather is the same as the previous mission, fairly good but there is low cloud at 5-6000ft over land.

Enemy – Enemy air assets have been diverted to help in countering our attacks so expect tougher resistance than last time. There are plenty of SAMs and support battalions on station through the country so be alert. You will be expected.

Friendly – See timetable

ROE – Be sure of your target as there are other friendlies in the target area.

Good Luck
