CURRENT SITUATION

It has just been reported by an undercover agent deployed to the Shenyang Airbase in China that four Russian Su-33SM Naval Flankers, deployed as technology demonstrators for J-11 upgrade programmes, are to leave Shenyang to rejoin with the Kuznetznov carrier.

MISSION DETAILS

We are to launch an 8-ship immediately in an attempt to intercept and destroy the four Flankers. Remember, we don't know exact flight paths or even the exact location of their carrier group so you'll need to find the Flankers first!

Weather

Wind: - 5 knots @180

Visibility: - Good

Cloud Altitude: - 8,000 feet

Enemy

Capable aircraft are available to enemy forces, check OOB!

Friendly

None immediately. We hope to launch an E-3 at 08:15hrs but technical problems are conspiring to keep it on the ground. You'll be notified if it gets airborne!

Ordnance

Air to Air weapons are fixed, everything else is free.

Good luck!
