

Do or Die

Situation

Intel reports that DPRK forces have planned an attack at Toejo Naval Base. It is most likely that the DPRK is going to use Samjiyong Airbase, which is located in the north east part of North Korea nearby the Russian border, for the strike mission. Based on satellite photos that were made a couple of hours ago we do know that a squadron of TU 95's is stationed there.

Task

Our task will be to destroy Samjiyong Airbase before the TU 95's can get airborne. For the mission there is a package that consist of two flights. These two flights are a 2-ship escort and a 4-ship deepstrike. Details of each flight are displayed below.
